RANI DURGAVATI VISHWAVIDYALAYA

Syllabus Prescribed for PG Diploma in Tribal Studies Examination

There shall be five compulsory paper which includes four theory paper (of 100 marks each) of three hours duration and Dissertation Viva-Voce examination (of 100 marks) as one compulsory paper.

Note : The valuation of the dissertation shall be done by one external examiner. beside the valuation a viva-voce examination of the dissertation shall be conducted by a board of three examiners i.e. The External Examiner, Supervisor of the candidate & Head of the Department. the ratio of marks for dissertation & viva-voce shall be 7:3 respectively.

Paper I	Tribal Studies : Basic Concepts	M.M. 100
Paper II	Research Methods	M.M. 100
Paper III	Major Problems of Indian Tribes	M.M. 100
Paper IV	Tribal Welfare & development	M.M. 100
Paper V	Dissertation & Viva – Voce	M.M. 100

Paper I : Tribal Studies : Basic Concepts M.M. 100

Unit - 1 Tribal Studies : Meaning, Nature, Scope, Need & importance of tribal studies. Meaning, Definition & characteristics of Tribe, Caste & Race.

Unit - 2 Kinship : Meaning, Definition & characteristics, importance, type & classification. Kinship usages. Totem & Clan : characteristics & importance

Unit - 3 Primitive Family : Concept of family, characteristics, functions of Family, types of family. Polyandrous & Matrilineal Family among Indian tribes. Change taking place.

Unit - 4 Primitive Marriage : Concept, characteristics, functions & forms of marriage. Way of acquiring mates in tribal societies. Preferential & prescriptive marriage.

Unit - 5 Primitive Religion : Concept, Origin & importance. Primitive Economy – concept, stages. Primitive Policy – Law, Government & Justice. Youth organization in tribal India.

Paper II : Research Methods M.M. 100

Unit - 1 Research : Meaning. Social Research : meaning, aims, importance, Nature of Social phenomenon, Scientific Method : concept , characteristics, step & relevance in Social Research.

Unit - 2 Social survey : Definition, Aims & objective, Types, Steps & Limitation. Distinction between Social Survey & Social Research. Types of Data.

Unit - 3 Observation : Concept, Stratification & Types of Observation. Mass Observation, Case study – definition ,characteristics.

Unit - 4 Schedule / Interview Schedule : Concept, characteristics. construction of schedule, merits & demerits. Interview Guide: Use & limitation. Statistics in Social Science.

Unit - 5 Elementary Statistics : Calculation of Mean, Median & Mode, Graphic Presentation of Data: One and two Dimensional.

Paper III : Major Problems of Indian Tribes M.M. 100

Unit - 1 Illiteracy : Poverty, Indebt ness, Unemployment, migration & Exploitation. Environmental & Degradation.

Unit - 2 Problem of Health and sanitation : Prostitution, Culture Decay due to assimilation. Replacement & Rehabilitation of Tribal population.

Unit - 3 Scheduled Tribe in India : Population Composition of tribal, classification of Indian Tribe – Racial, Lingual, Geographical, Cultural.

Unit - 4 Some Major Tribes in India : Santhal, Khasi, Munda, Bhils.

Unit - 5 Some Major Tribes in Central India : Gond, Baiga, Bharia, Korkus.

Paper IV : Tribal Welfare & development M.M. 100

Unit - 1 Development : Concept, need of tribal development, Role of people Participating in Development – Leadership & Development. National Commission for Schedule Tribe.

Unit - 2 Welfare-Concept, Characteristics: Tribal Welfare in post independence period. Constitutional provision & safe guard after independence, Legislation & Reservation Policy.

Unit - 3 Tribal Development Programs for Scheduled Tribes : Medical, Education, Economy, Employment & Agriculture Evaluation of Programs

Unit - 4 Tribal Welfare & Advisory Agencies in India : Role of NGO's in tribal development, Role of Christian missionaries in tribal welfare & development. Tribal Welfare Administration.

Unit - 5 Tribal Sub Plan Strategy in India & Madhya Pradesh : Analysis & Critical Evaluation. Tribal welfare through Five Year Plans. Hinderances of Tribal Welfare & Development.

Paper V : Dissertation & Viva – voce Exam M.M. (70+30) 100