

Cultural Cell

Youth Festival is a unique cultural event that is annually celebrated with boundless enthusiasm and provides an opportunity to youth to display their rich artistic talents, often nurtured hidden. It is an ideal medium to achieve national and emotional integration and brotherhood amongst the youth by bringing the diverse cultures of different regions across the country. Association of Indian Universities and Department of Youth Affairs and Sports, Ministry of Human Resource Development, Govt. of India, New Delhi, and Ministry of Higher education, Govt. of Madhya Pradesh have jointly began youth festival from 1985 in their efforts to offer a platform to preserve the distinctive talent of the rural areas.

As per the academic calendar of the Government of Madhya Pradesh three tiered competition are organized by the university and the affiliated colleges (1) inter class (2) inter collegiate (3) inter districts (university level) and state level youth festival organize one of the state university in every year. These events are organized by Cultural Cell of Rani Durgavati University, Jabalpur.

In the session 2013-14, as per the guidelines of M.P. state government, Rani Durgavati University, Jabalpur has organized the State level Youth Festival between 12-14 Feb, 2014.

The events were not only organized successfully, they were appreciated by the Principal secretary, Higher Education, State government and the University won the first position in over all competition In the session 2010-11, State Youth Festival was organized by Devi Ahilya University, Indore, there in, a group of seventy students of Rani Durgavati University took part and secured the first runners-up position. After the state level Youth festival the Regional level and National level Youth Festivals are organized by Association of Indian Universities (AIU). The team of 40 members of the Rani Durgavati University, Jabalpur, took part in the festival at Regional level. The participating students secured various positions in different events during Regional level and National level.

Cultural Cell

In the Session 2009-10, National Youth Festival was held at M.D. University, Rohtak. Rani Durgavati University was participated and secured positions in different events such as elocution, one-act play and clay modeling.

In session 2011-12 national youth festival was held at RTM University, Nagpur and university has won in rangoli competition. In session 2013-2014, National youth festival was held at kurukshetra university, kurukshetra and university has won in the event one-act play and folk Tribal Dance .

Prof. Surendra Singh, Dean, Students Welfare, and Dr. R.K. Gupta, in-charge of the Cultural Cell, successfully organize and conduct the various activities of the cell.

